THE GAZETTE.

FRIDAY OCTOBER 21.

THE QUESTION OF SUGAR MAKING.

One of the most important articles of consumption in this country is sugar; and the greater part of the quantity consumed is imported. The value of the sugar brought to this country every year to meet the demand of the market will reach almost one hundred million dollars. Louisiana, which is the only cane sugar state in the Union, is going backward instead of forward in the sugar industry, and so the people of this country are compelled to depend upon foreign sugar for their supply. But even under this condition of things, it is a fact that sugar was never so cheap in the United States as it is to-day.

The other day we found the following item in an eastern paper in regard to the manufacture of sugar from sorghum, and it is well worth reading:

In his last annual report the commissioner of agriculture spoke somewhat hopefully of the prospect of producing sugar from sorghum by the diffusion process, which up to that time had been experimented with only to a limited extent. Subsequent experiments on an adequate scale, carried on at Fort Scott, Kans., appear to have fully justified the faith of the commissioner, and to have demonstrated the entire practicability of producing sugar from sorghum by this process on a profitable scale. Commissioner Coleman returned to Washington from Fort Scott a few days ago, and he is reported to have expressed himself as entirely satisfied with the result of the experiments and confident that the sugar problem for this country has been successfully solved. If this shall prove to be so it is one of the most important economic achievements in our history. It will render this country independent of the sugar growers of the rest of the world, and keep at home nearly $100 000,000 that now goes abroad to pay for foreign sugar. It will operate also to reduce the price of this necessary article the world over. It has been shown that the cane yields from 104 to 110 pounds of sugar and 12 gallons of molasses to the ton, more than double the yield obtained last year from much better cane. Regarding the area in which sorghum for sugar can be successfully cultivated, the commissioner of agriculture describes it as embracing all the region south of a line a hundred or two miles north of the latitude of Washington and St. Louis extending to the western boundary of Kansas or Nebraska making an immense territory to be benefited by this industry if its developments shall be what now seems promised.

These are facts concerning the manufacture of sugar from sorghum, are important in the discussing the question of sugar-making in the United States. The only draw-back in the use of sorghum in the manufacture of sugar has been either the lack of experience in the business, or the want of proper machinery. But still, the quality of sugar manufactured from sorghum has been fairly good, and with more care and better appliances in this industry, the quality will become as standard as the best sugar we get by importation.

Senator John Sherman has given the beet sugar industry considerable attention. He has studied all the processes of making sugar from beets adopted in the different countries in Europe, and he is firmly of the opinion that sugar can be made from beets in the united States as well as in France or Germany; and in a recent speech in Ohio he urged upon the farmers the importance of diversifying their crops, and by all means to engage in the raising of beets for sugar purposes. There is more money in it than there is in raising sheep, or corn, or tobacco, and besides that the crop is far more certain.

It will be remembered that several months ago the Gazette printed some remarks of Senator Sherman on government bounty for the production of the sugar beet. This was an excellent suggestion, for it is a matter of universal import and especially is it important to the laboring classes. France and Germany are far in advance of the United States in this matter, and some time ago offered bounties for the production of sugar from beets. These governments thought best to protect or encourage the growing of sugar beets and the making of sugar therefrom, just as we protect the industries of this country by a tariff. And what was the result? The high-priced lands in France and Germany were used in growing sugar beets, and it was not long before beet sugar forced the price of cane sugar down to the present figures. It is estimated that one-half of the sugar used to-day is made from beets; and those who have given the sugar industry careful study are of the opinion that the farmers of this country can raise beets sufficient to supply the people with as good a quality of sugar as that furnished by importation.

A year ago the state of Florida incorporated into its constitution a local option article by a very large majority vote. According to this provision, one-fourth of the registered voters of a county may call an election to be held within sixty days, and if the majority of voters in the county are for prohibition, the sale of all kinds of intoxicating liquors is forbidden for two years for that county. If the county goes "wet" as a whole, the election districts within it voting for prohibition shall be "dry" for two years, when another vote may be taken. Under the operation of this local option movement, one third of the state has already gone for prohibition; and there is more to follow. The sagacious temperance people in that advancing state do not think it judicious to be so intent on trying to "kill" one or other of the great national parties, as to postpone taking hold with a will, with everybody else who is willing to work with them, for the same cause, in securing the best results possible, immediately, and close at hand.

The foregoing paragraph is from the Chicago Advance, and the Gazette is glad to note that the tone of the Advance on the temperance question is improving. Once in a while that paper seemed to lend its influence to the cry of the third party prohibitionists "anything to beat the republican party", and it has been too free in its abuse of the party that has secured to the people of the north all the temperance legislation tending to suppress or restrict the rum traffic. When the temperance people shall unite in the suggestion of the Advance that it is better to work for practical temperance measures than to be intent on trying to cut the throat of either one of the great political parties, then there will be something done that will effectually suppress the drink curse in most of the northern states.

The Racine Journal makes the following remarks on Governor Rusk and the presidency:

Wisconsin will be sure of presenting the name of Jeremiah M. Rusk at the national republican convention for the presidency. Recent developments in the east are very favorable to the governor and his boom for that high office is by no means solely confined to Wisconsin. Not only an honored veteran, who has done brave service for his country, but he is an able man, possessed of ability and of a large fund of common sense, combined with sterling integrity, which would make him a very strong candidate. Patriotic, able, and of uncommon good judgment, Governor Rusk will make a most excellent president. The Journal has before referred to the possibility of the governor being a candidate, and the favorable reception to his name in other states, especially in the east, make it by no means unlikely that he will be a leading figure in the next national convention.

The name of Governor Rusk will be carried before the national convention with remarkable enthusiasm, for he is one of the best known governors in the United States, and certainly one of the most popular.

The board of directors of the Monona Lake assembly held a meeting at Madison on Thursday, and the report of the secretary of the board showed the following financial condition of the assembly:

|---|---|
| Balance, last report | $ 136 74 |
| Receipts from other sources | 0 8 55 |
| Receipts during encampment | 7,384 09 |
| Total receipts | $ 8,428 28 |
| Total disbursements | $ 8,370 03 |

The total assets of the assembly are $18,890.43, while the total liabilities are $9,920, showing the association to be in a flattering condition, financially. The cost of the programme for last summer's encampment at Lakeside was $3 207.31. The gross receipts of the assembly for the past four years are herewith given:

| | |
|---|---|
| 1884 | $7,313 70 |
| 1885 | 7,670 25 |
| 1886 | 8,182 50 |
| 1887 | 7,041 51 |

Had the encampment this year been as long as that of other years, the receipts would probably have been as large as in 1886.

To prevent a salt trust "repeal the duty on salt," exclaims a free trade theorist. There is no tariff on gas, and yet the gas trust is the greediest, most extortionate, and most unconscionable monopoly that has been created, except the coal ring—and there is no tariff on coal. —A High Tariff Theorist.

"No tariff on coal," you say. Who told you so? You had better read the act before exposing your ignorance again. You will find that the tariff bounty on coal is equal to the average wages per ton paid to workmen for mining coal—Chicago Tribune.

But if the Tribune wants to be fair and entirely honest in the discussion of the coal "tax" why doesn't it say that there is no "tax" or duty at all on anthracite coal, such as the people generally use in their homes? The duty on bituminous coal is 75 cents a ton, and even if that impost duty were wiped out does the Tribune suppose that the price of soft coal would be reduced? Not a bit of it. A free importation of bituminous coal would not effect the market in the least, because there are tens of millions of tons that can be mined annually much cheaper than it can be imported.

Thus gently does Harper's Weekly deal with political prospects:

The result of the elections this year is awaited with peculiar interest as an indication of the tendency of political sympathy, which now before the election is singularly obscure. The election will throw great light upon the probable course of events next year. Thus, if New York should be lost to the democratic party by a heavy vote, the renomination of the president would be less certain than it now seems to be, because the loss would show that the indispensable electoral vote of his own state are not assured him.

How enlightening that paragraph is from Mr. Curtis. But what is the matter? It was only a few months ago that Harper's Weekly said that Mr. Cleveland had so gained the confidence of the country that nothing could prevent his renomination and election. Does Harper's begin to see that Mr. Cleveland does not carry the vote of the country in his pocket?

A dispatch from Chicago says that at a meeting of the managers of the lines of the Western States Passenger association on Wednesday all lines of the association were authorized to supplement the present form of mileage tickets which are issued at 2½ cent a mile with an additional mileage ticket for 2,000 miles at 2 cents a mile. This is in accordance with the ruling of inter state commission, which was to the effect that whatever was granted to commercial travelers must be granted to others who desire to buy the tickets.

The little city of Marinette, in this state, was visited by a conflagration on Thursday morning and forty buildings were destroyed, involving a loss of about $200,000. This fire is bad enough, but it is made all the worse because not half of the property burned was covered by insurance. There is not one business man in a thousand who is able to carry his own insurance.

THEIR LAST HOPE.

Anarchists' Counsel to Appear Before the Supreme Court.

A WRIT OF ERROR TO BE ASKED FOR.

The Main Points Upon Which They Rely —Mass Meetings Held in Various Cities Asking Mercy for the Condemned.

TRYING TO SAVE THE ANARCHISTS.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Captain Black, the Anarchist counsel, arrived here yesterday, and is stopping with his brother, General John C. Black. General Pryor will probably arrive this morning. They will confer with Justice Harlan at the Supreme Court to-day and make application for a writ of error. General Pryor and Randolph Tucker have both declared their firm belief that the Illinois statut relating to the selection of jurors, passed in 1874, which provides that jurors are not disqualified because of impressions formed from newspaper accounts, is contrary to both the constitution of Illinois and that of the United States. Basing their hopes on this point along with others of less importance, they have expressed the conviction that not only a writ of error and a supersedeas will be granted, but that the decision of the Illinois Supreme Court will be set aside, and a new trial ordered. This point has been examined by General Butler, who gives an unqualified declaration that the statute is unconstitutional and the decision on that ground will be reversed. General Butler expresses himself as sanguine that the writ of error will be secured. Should it be granted a stay of proceedings will at once be ordered, and Oscar Neebe will be sent back from the Joliet penitentiary to the Cook County jail. A day for the hearing will be designated, and six weeks for preparation will be allowed. In case this is set down on the regular calendar it would be two years before the case would be reached, so that a special order may be issued to take it up at an earlier date. It is understood that Randolph Tucker places great reliance upon the point that the conviction of the Anarchists was in violation of the first section of the fourteenth amendment of the constitution, which provides that no State shall deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law, and that by reason of various alleged illegal proceedings the due process of law has not been observed. While there are quite a number of Anarchist sympathizers at the National capital, they have held no public meetings, and their movements have been kept studiously concealed.

JUSTICE HARLAN.

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—Some time ago the Central Labor Union of New York called upon similar organizations in the leading cities of the United States to join in protests against the execution of the condemned Anarchists. These protests were to be voiced at meetings to be held simultaneously all over the country. In response to this call fully 4,000 people assembled at Battery D last night. A force of twenty-six police officers under command of Captain Buckley and Lieutenant Laughlin were stationed in the hall, and thirty detectives from the Central station were scattered about the audience. In the Cavalry armory, to the north, and the patrol barn, to the south of the hall, were other reserves, and at a moment's notice, so disposed were his forces, Captain Buckley could have brought to the armory as many men as would be needed in case of trouble. But the crowd was an unusually undemonstrative one, and no occasion arose for the use of the police force.

Alderman Conner, of the Fifth ward, presided, and stated the object of the meeting to be to show that the people of Chicago are not in favor of hanging the seven condemned men, and to urge the Governor to exercise his power in preventing the execution. George M. Sloan was the first speaker. He urged a commutation of sentence for the Anarchists, "who were only protesting against a condition of society which was crushing them." He did not consider them safe leaders, but thought they exercised no more free speech than was their right. If an Anarchist wants to introduce a new state of society he has a right to do so. In referring to Judge Gary Mr. Sloan called him "the best business judge in the city of Chicago, but if ever there was thimble-rigging with justice it was during that trial." In conclusion he said: "We want that sentence remitted. We don't want any hanging. If they are hanged, they will be hanged as John Brown was, and because the laboring men of Chicago and the United States are slaves."

Other addresses were made by Editor Zwanzig, of the La Salle County Herald, published in Ottawa, Robert Swallow, a journeyman carpenter, and Thomas Morgan. Resolutions urging clemency and denouncing the verdict were adopted unanimously. At the close of the speeches Alderman Connor announced the collections for the evening at "a little more than $400." In the bottom of the hat was found a loaded pistol cartridge.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Cooper Union Hall was well filled last night in response to the call of the Central Labor Union for a public meeting to protest against the execution of the seven Anarchists in Chicago. Resolutions to that effect and asking the United States Supreme Court to hear the case were passed.

HOBOKEN, N. J., Oct. 21.—A meeting of sympathizers with the condemned Chicago Anarchists was held here last night. There was no disturbance.

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 21.—Members of the West Side Social Turner Society met last night and prepared a "solemn protest" against the execution of Spies and his associates. The society is composed of Germans, many of whom are well-known business men.

The Presidential Train Headed for Washington.

A WARM WELCOME ON THE ROUTE.

The Visit to Montgomery, Ala.—A Speech by the President—The Chief Magistrate and His Wife Receive a Handsome Present.

THE TOUR COMPLETED.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Oct. 21.—The presidential train drew into this city at 8 o'clock yesterday morning. The greatest enthusiasm was manifested on every hand. The military was drawn up in line and stood with presented arms as Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland and the members of their party entered carriages provided for them. The procession then marched to the Exchange Hotel, where they partook of breakfast. After breakfast the President reviewed the military from the balcony of the hotel, and there was a presentation to the President and Mrs. Cleveland of a handsome solid silver jewel casket representing a cotton bale and bearing an appropriate inscription indicative of their visit to Montgomery. The President visited the fair grounds and was enthusiastically received. In reply to the Governor's address of welcome he spoke at some length, dwelling upon the probabilities of growth of Alabama. Said he:

"Every ton of iron ore you are enabled to furnish a northern State goes far toward destroying sectional feeling. Your fellow countrymen appreciate the value of intimate and profitable business relations with you and there need be no fear that they will permit them to be destroyed or endangered by designing demagogues. The wickedness of these partisans who seek to aid their ambitious schemes by engendering hate among a generous people is fast meeting exposure, and yet there is and should be an insistance upon a strict adherence to the settlement which has been made of disputed questions and upon the unreserved acceptance of such settlement. Against this I believe no business consideration should prevail, and I firmly believe that there is American fairness enough abroad in the land to insure a proper and substantial recognition of the good faith which you have exhibited."

Shortly before 1 o'clock the procession proceeded to the train, and the members of the party again boarded the vestibule special, bound for home.

ROME, Ga., Oct. 21.—Ten thousand people gathered at the depot of the East Tennessee road in Rome at 9:30 last night to greet the President and Mrs. Cleveland. Huge bonfires blazed up and down the track, and over it were thrown two magnificent arches of electric lights. The immense crowd of people gave expression to its enthusiasm in frequent cheers for Mr. Cleveland and louder and even heartier cheers for Mrs. Cleveland as the train slowly passed through the town with the President and his wife standing on the rear platform.

DALTON, Ga., Oct. 21.—The people of this region are not behind those of the Northwest in honoring the President with bonfires. Piles of pine knots and torches were burning at all the way stations along the President's route, and many lonely negro cabins made a show of demonstration. The train passed Dalton at 11 o'clock. The tourists were about retiring, promising themselves a full night's sleep.

THE BUCKET SHOPS.

A Chicago Judge Renders a Decision in Their Favor and Against the Board of Trade of That City.

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—Considerable interest was excited yesterday by the decision of Judge Collins, of the circuit court, in refusing to dissolve the temporary injunction obtained some time since by J. A. Murphy & Co., an alleged bucket-shop concern on Adams near Clark street, in a bill filed against the Board of Trade. The injunction restrained the board from cutting off market quotations from them. The board moved to have the injunction dissolved, and Judge Collins, in a long and carefully prepared opinion, denies the motion, holding that although a private corporation the Chicago Board of Trade has become of so great importance as to rule the prices of provisions in the whole country; that their market quotations are property which has become affected with the public interest, and must be regulated by the courts and the Legislature. As one of the objects of the incorporation is to disseminate commercial information, it must not be allowed to discriminate as to whom the information is to be given. This opinion is regarded as a direct victory for the bucket-shops, and while it is in line with a decision by Judge Tuley, it is opposed to the ruling of Judge Bagby in a test case which is now on the docket in the appellate court for this term.

The Employing Printers' Convention.

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—The employing printers' convention devoted the greater part of yesterday to discussing the nine-hour question. A communication was sent to the representatives of the International Typographical Union requesting them to retain the old scale of wages and the ten-hour system. Early in the morning ex-President George Clarke of the Typographical Union met the delegates from the National employers' body, but the result was absolutely nothing. Mr. Theodore Devinne, of New York, was elected president of the newly-formed organization, and the convention then adjourned.

From the character of the proceedings at the convention it is thought extremely probable that November 1 will be the beginning of a general lock-out or strike in the job-printing establishments of all principal cities of the United States.

Charged with Swindling.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—C. G. Francklyn, who was re-elected president of the Horn Silver Mining Company yesterday, was arrested late in the day on a warrant issued in a suit for $500,000 damages. He was taken to the Ludlow street jail, and at a late hour was still there. The suit grows out of a charge that Mr. Francklyn, as manager of the Horn Silver Mining Company, misappropriated over $300,000 of the company's funds. Mr. Francklyn has said that the money was loaned to him.

GLADSTONE'S APPEAL.

The "Grand Old Man" Still Talking in Erin's Cause.

SYNOPSIS OF HIS SPEECH AT DERBY.

The Statement Made by His Opponents That He Is Inconsistent in Joining the Irish Party Denied—Other Points.

PLEADING FOR IRELAND.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—Mr. Gladstone was welcomed by enthusiastic crowds which filled the streets on his arrival at Derby yesterday. He addressed an audience of 4,000 in the drill-hall last evening. He was supported by Sir William Vernon Harcourt and Baron Wolverton. The crowd climbed to the girders of the roof. When the organist played "God Bless the Prince of Wales" hisses were heard from some parts of the hall. The air of the song "Joey and Jesse," which alludes to Mr. Joseph Chamberlain and Jesse Collings, was also played and was loudly groaned.

Mr. Gladstone said their opponents were growing weaker while their own forces were becoming stronger. He was accused of co-operating with those whom he once denounced as marching with rapine and murder toward the disintegration of the empire. All the objections then presented had passed away. Why, he asked, should he be accused of gross inconsistency because he allied himself with Mr. Parnell and the Irish party, who were acting on lines of moderation which assuredly would, in the end, secure home rule? He flatly denied that his course was inconsistent. When told that he had passed coercion measures he could only say that a measure such as was contested at the last session of Parliament had never been passed while he was in office. That measure was not aimed at the suppression of crime so much as at the liberty of the press and the right of public meeting, as its application proved. Lawful meetings had been prevented. It was said that Ireland consisted of two nations. Mr. Gladstone said he believed that the people of Ulster were simply laboring under a misunderstanding. They doubtless wanted the assurance that the connection between Ireland and England would be maintained. He believed that a satisfactory arrangement could be made by which Ulster would be united with the rest of Ireland, and that in the end all would give willing obedience to the Queen. On leaving the hall Mr. Gladstone was heartily cheered.

HASKELL LETS BLETHEN OUT.

The Editor of the Minneapolis "Tribune" Shoulders the Cleveland Editorial.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 21.—Something of a sensation was created to-day by the publication in the Minneapolis Tribune of two editorials, one over the signature of William E. Haskell, the other over that of Alden J. Blethen. In the course of his production Mr. Haskell says:

"The evening on which the editorial in question was written Mr. Blethen did not appear in the editorial rooms, and to my absolute knowledge did not dictate, inspire or see the article until he read it in print the next morning. The article was read and passed by me, and since the matter has wrongfully been made one of individual responsibility I desire to accept any blame or censure attaching to the publication and to relieve Mr. Blethen of the cowardly and merciless prosecution to which he has been subjected. W. E. HASKELL."

Mr. Blethen occupies a column in his article. Regarding the unfortunate editorial he says:

"I exceedingly regret every word that appeared in the Tribune so far as it related to Mrs. Cleveland, and had I seen the article before its publication no word with reference to that lady would have been published unless of a complimentary character. I desire to say that I feel that a gross error was committed, that the public sense of the city was outraged, and the whole matter is most sincerely and deeply regretted. No gentleman and no newspaper can afford to make any reference to a lady not of a complimentary character. ALDEN J. BLETHEN."

THE TEXAS EVICTIONS.

First Auditor Chenoweth Thinks the Rocking-Chair Company in the Wrong.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—A Washington special says: First Auditor Chenoweth, who is from Texas, when shown the report printed in the Southern papers that the Rocking-Chair Ranch Company were evicting the settlers of the Panhandle of Texas, said that this action had long been expected. He continued:

"There has been trouble brewing between this company and the settlers for some time. The company owns a tract of land of about thirty or forty square miles. Running through this land is what is known as the school fund sections, which, being open to settlement, have been taken up and are now claimed by those living upon them. A short time ago the company fenced in the entire section, while owning but the alternate strips. Their action is without the shadow of authority. The matter will go before the State courts, where, I am of the opinion, it will be quickly settled."

Coast Steamer Burned.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Oct. 21.—The steamer Regulator, 850 tons, running between New York and this city, was burned at her wharf here yesterday. Her cargo of cotton, naval stores and lumber, valued at $50,000, was destroyed. The vessel also is a total loss. Both vessel and cargo were insured.

Odd-Fellows' Decoration Day.

DES MOINES, Ia., Oct. 21.—Officers of the Iowa Grand Lodge of Odd-Fellows were formally installed here Thursday. The organization will observe June 10 of each year hereafter, and on that day the graves of brethren will be brightened with flowers.

Turks Demoralized by Rum Shops.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 21.—The police of this city are closing all liquor shops run by Europeans, on the ground that they are demoralizing the Turkish people. The consulates are invaded by liquor dealers complaining of the action of the police.

Quashed the Verdict.

DUBLIN, Oct. 21.—Judge O'Brien, of the Court of Queen's Bench, yesterday granted an application for a writ of certiorari to quash the verdict of willful murder rendered by the coroner's jury against the policemen who did the shooting at Mitchellstown.

Freezing Weather in Germany.

BERLIN, Oct. 21.—During the past few days persons sleeping in the open air at Carlsruhe, Crefeld and elsewhere have been frozen to death. The severe weather which has prevailed is unprecedented at this season of the year.

Chinamen Denounce Their Consul.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—A large number of Chinamen met here yesterday and denounced their Consul because he would not favor a mass-meeting of Chinamen to protest against Denis Kearney and his utterances.

The Progress of Yellow Fever.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct. 21.—A Tampa special to the Times-Union reports fourteen new cases of fever, including two colored people. Three deaths were reported yesterday.

The Verdict Unanimous

W. D. Snit, Druggist, Bippus, Ind testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles, and was cured of rheumatism of 10 years' standing." Abraham Hare, druggist, Bellville, Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my 20 years' experience, is Electric Bitters." Tacusand of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the Liver, Kidneys or Blood. Only a half dollar a bottle at Frank Sherer & Co's.

CURRENT EVENTS.

A Condensation of Interesting Telegrams Gleaned from Various Parts of the Globe.

A powerful flow of natural gas was struck Thursday at Auburn, Ind., at a depth of 1,067 feet.

Colonel H. A. Montgomery, president of the Memphis Jockey Club, fell dead in the club-house Thursday after the second race.

Friends of anarchy in Topeka, Kan., began circulating Thursday a petition asking Governor Oglesby to extend clemency to the seven Anarchists in the Chicago jail.

It is estimated the yield of wheat in Michigan will reach 22,815,153 bushels. Potatoes are about one-third crop; winter apples one-half an average crop.

Thomas H. Davis, former cashier and assistant freight agent of the New York Central railroad, pleaded guilty at New York Thursday of having stolen $15,000 from the company.

Springfield, Mo., adopted local prohibition Thursday by a majority of 250 votes. The election was hotly contested, and ladies worked earnestly against the liquor traffic.

Large numbers of Swedish colliers are being taken into the mines in the Springfield (Ill.) district, and the strikers there are liable to rise against them. The situation is serious.

Premier Norquay, of Manitoba, has succeeded in disposing of the provincial railway bonds, the purchasers being a syndicate, of which Mann & Holt, the contractors, are at the head. Work on the Red River Valley road will now go on.

LONDON'S ANGRY MOBS.

More Riots of Socialists and Unemployed Workmen in Which Many Are Injured —Misery in the British Metropolis.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—A number of Socialists and unemployed workmen gathered in Hyde Park yesterday. One of the speakers unrolled and waved a red flag, crying: "The glorious commune!" A part of the mob then stampeded. Scores of persons in the crowd were thrown down and trampled upon. Those who stampeded reassembled later in another portion of the park.

The crowd appointed a deputation from among their number to visit the Home Office. Upon the arrival there of the deputation they found that the Home Secretary was absent, but they secured an interview with a minor secretary, who promised them that he would represent their views to the Home Secretary upon his return. A large crowd followed the deputation from the park to the Home Office and congregated about the building. After the interview was concluded the police charged the crowd, but were met with resistance. A short but sharp struggle followed, in which the police were finally successful in dispersing the mob. Many persons in the crowd were injured and a number of arrests were made.

OCEAN HORRORS.

A German Bark Sunk in a Collision and Twelve Lives Lost—A Steamer Wrecked In Australian Waters and All on Board Drowned.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—The steamer Upupa collided with and sunk the German bark Plantour, off Beachy Head, off the south coast of England, on Tuesday. Eleven persons were drowned, and the captain of the bark has since died. Only two of the crew of the bark survived.

MELBOURNE, Oct. 21.—The Colonial passenger steamer Cheviot has been wrecked at Port Phillip. Many of the passengers and crew were drowned. The remainder have arrived at Melbourne.

New York's Anarchist Fire-Bugs.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Franz Mikhof, a member of an Anarchist club which has been making a living by setting fire to property for the purpose of getting the insurance-money, was found guilty of that offense in the General Sessions court. The alleged leader of the gang, a man named William Schurt, escaped, and it was stated at the trial that he had for several years made a business of setting fire to houses on commission for owners who desired to get insurance money.

May Show the Letters.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 21.—Judge Sawyer, of the United States Circuit Court, has dismissed, on motion of Mr. Huntington's attorney, the order restraining Mrs. Ellen Colton from showing to the Pacific Railroad Commission letters written to her husband by C. P. Huntington. Mrs. Colton was subpœnaed by the commission to produce the letters, but suit was brought by Mr. Huntington to perpetually enjoin her from disclosing their contents.

What Am I To Do?

The symptoms of Biliousness are unhappily but too well known. They differ in different individuals to some extent. A Bilious man is seldom a breakfast eater. Too frequently, alas, he has an excellent appetite for liquors but none for solids of a morning. His tongue will hardly bear inspection at any time; if it is not white and furred, it is rough, at all events.

The digestive system is wholly out of order and Diarrhœa or Constipation may be a symptom or the two may alternate. There are often Hemorrhoids or even loss of blood. There may be giddiness and often headache and acidity or flatulence and tenderness in the pit of the stomach. To correct all this if not effect a cure, try Green's August Flower, it cost but a trifle and thousands attest its efficacy.

For Scrofula Impoverished Blood and General Debility.

Scott's Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil, with Hypophosphites, has no equal in the whole realm of Medicine. Read the following: "I gave one bottle of Scott's Emulsion to my own child for Scrofula, and the effect was miraculous." O. F. GRAY, M. D., White Hill, Ind.

THE KNIGHTS.

Powderly Goes to Milwaukee to Conciliate the Seceding Brewers Assembly—Work of Committees.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 21.—The majority of the delegates to the Knights of Labor General Assembly have returned home. Master-Workman Powderly and most of the other general officers left last night for Milwaukee, where they will endeavor to conciliate the kicking Cambrinus assembly of that city, whose membership is made up of brewery employes. This assembly has seceded from the order because the organization has refused the request that they be allowed to sell liquor and beer at their annual picnics. It is presumed that the assembly does not understand the law of the order and it is thought that a personal visit and explanation of the matter by the General Master Workman may tend to conciliate them and bring them back.

The general Executive Board held a meeting during the day, and it is understood one or two members of the board were selected to investigate the trouble in the Pennsylvania coal regions. The celebrated Youngstown (O.) conspiracy case was also considered. It is understood that the board has sufficient evidence to convict at least one of the conspirators and that criminal proceedings will be begun at once.

The co-operative board requested the general Executive Board to turn over to it the $40,000 appropriated by the Richmond convention for the use of the board, but it is understood the request will not be granted. No provision was made for this important branch of the order at all, the general assembly having taken away its only source of revenue by voting that it be not compulsory on the part of the assemblies to pay their assessments to maintain the board. The terms of two of its members have expired, but no provision has been made to fill the vacancies.

Mr. Powderly said yesterday that he was well satisfied with the results of the convention. He thought the abolition of the assistance fund would tend to decrease strikes and bring employers and employes closer together. He does not look for any serious labor troubles during the coming year, but should any difficulty arise it will be settled by arbitration. He expects a healthy increase in the order during the year, especially from the farmers.

RIVERS AND HARBORS.

The Convention for the Improvement of Western Waterways Opened at Memphis, Tenn.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 21.—The convention for the Improvement of Western Waterways assembled yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. About 300 delegates are in attendance from the States of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Pennsylvania, Minnesota, Missouri, Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana and Arkansas. After prayer by Rev. W. E. Boggs, President D. B. Woods, of New Orleans, called the convention to order and made a brief address, urging the convention to present a determined front in favor of liberal appropriations for rivers and harbors. Judge Greer, of this city, then delivered the address of welcome to the delegates on behalf of the citizens of Memphis. Hon. J. W. Clapp, of Memphis, was unanimously elected temporary chairman, and E. A. Keeling, of the Memphis Merchants' Exchange, temporary secretary. Judge Clapp made a powerful speech, insisting upon the importance of securing Congressional aid, not only for the improvement of the Mississippi river, but for all navigable streams. His remarks were well received and seemed to reflect the sentiment of the convention.

The convention reassembled at 8:30 o'clock last night and the report of the Committee on Rules and Order of Business was read and adopted. The report of the Committee on Permanent Organization was adopted. It names Governor F. O. Stannard, of Missouri, for chairman. The convention adjourned until to-day.

The following distinguished gentlemen occupied seats on the platform: Governor Lowry, of Mississippi; Senator E. C. Walthall, of Mississippi; Hon. C. H. Breckenridge, of Arkansas; Hon. C. Newton, of Louisiana, and Hon. James Phelan, of Tennessee.

Hon. Isaac Taylor, chairman of the Peoria convention, is in receipt of a letter from the Acting Secretary of War cordially indorsing the action of that body and advocating the use of Peoria lake as a naval harbor and torpedo station.

NOT GUILTY.

The Canty Brothers Acquitted of the Charge of Complicity in the Robbery of the East St. Louis City Vaults.

BELLEVILLE, Ill., Oct. 21.—D. J. Canty, Recorder of St. Clair County, and T. A. Canty, ex-City Clerk of East St. Louis, who have been on trial for complicity in the famous city-vault robbery, were acquitted Wednesday evening by a jury. One of the incidents of Wednesday's proceedings was the fining of Mayor Stephens, of East St. Louis, $20 for contempt of court. He made a public apology subsequently, and the fine was remitted. This is the second trial of the Cantys on the charge of being accessory to the robbery. The jury disagreed on the first trial.

Shrinkage of Stocks.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—The active stocks on the New York Exchange are listed for an aggregate of about $2,000,000,000. It is remarked by a leading broker here that the decline on the whole list has averaged 25 to 30 per cent during the last ten months, making an aggregate loss to holders of some $800,000,000. The decline on other securities may be roughly stated at enough to make up a total loss of at least $1,500,000,000, or more than the entire interest-bearing debt of the United States at the present time.

The Agricultural Convention.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—At the Agricultural convention yesterday morning papers were read on "The Work and the Needs of Experiment Stations," and "Experiments and Investigations Demanded by the Farmers of Iowa." The papers were prepared by Prof. E. W. Hilgard, of California, and Prof. R. P. Speer, of the Iowa State Agricultural College, respectively. George W. Atherton, of Pennsylvania, was elected president.

Death of Manitoba's Chief Justice.

WINNIPEG, Manitoba, Oct. 21.—Hon. Lewis Wallbridge, Chief Justice of Manitoba, expired yesterday morning, after a short illness. The remains will be taken to Belleville, Ont., for interment. Deceased was 71 years of age and unmarried. He received his appointment in January, 1883.

Water Instead of Gas.

LINCOLN, Ill., Oct. 21.—For some time past a company from Ohio has been boring for gas in this city. Yesterday morning, at a depth of 520 feet, the drill struck a strong vein of water. It is now boiling over the tubing, and threatens to inundate all the country round about.

Machinery Destroyed by a Cyclone.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—A telegram was yesterday received from Prof. Wiley, of the Agricultural Department, now in Louisiana, stating that the cyclone entirely wrecked the machinery erected for the purpose of trying the experiment of making sugar by the diffusive process.

Credit is due the German women as physicians for first using Red Clover blossoms as a medicine. Best results are obtained when combined with other medicinal roots and herbs, as in Dr. Jones' Red Clover Tonic, which is the best known remedy for all blood diseases, stomach and liver troubles, pimples, corrosives, bad breath, piles, ague and malaria diseases, indigestion, loss of appetite, low spirits, headache and all diseases of the kidneys. Price 50 cents of Pentice & Evenson, opposite postoffice.

A Woman's Discovery.

"Another wonderful discovery has been made and that too by a lady in this county. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She bought of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and was so much relied on taking first dose that she slept all night and with one bottle has been miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. O. Hamrick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Get a free trial bottle at F. Sherer & Co's. Drug store.

MISCELLANEOUS ADVERTISEMENTS

J. W. VANCE, M. D.

MADISON, WIS.

During the past five years Dr. Vance has devoted his attention almost exclusively to the treatment of

Diseases of the Rectum

He is meeting with success in all diseases that are curable. Some patients neglect to have treatment until it is too late. His treatment is almost painless, and does not prevent his patients from doing ordinary work. Patients improve from the first treatment.

The doctor may be consulted at the Myers House, on October 7th and 21st. All who are troubled with any form of Piles, etc., should call upon him.

OFFICE ALEX. COOK, ATTY. AT LAW, WATK SHA, Sept. 18, 1886.

In this interest of suffering humanity, I am prompted to say that after having been afflicted with an aggravated type of Piles for more than thirty years, being advised there-to by two worthy medical authority, based on personal experience, I placed myself under the treatment of Dr Vance, of Madison. And my advice to all suffering in like manner is unhesitatingly to do likewise, and thereby receive full as apparently in my case, permanent cure. A. COOK.

FOOTS LLD, Wis., September 25, '85.

I was troubled with Piles for about twenty-five years. Under Dr. Vance's treatment I have entirely recovered. While under treatment I was not prevented from work a single day. I can recommend Dr. Vance and his system of treatment for Piles to all who are afflicted. HORACE V. WRIGHT.

For Congress.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 21.—The Republican Congressional Committee of the Sixth district has nominated Judge John Voist for Congress.

The breath of a chronic catarrh patient is often so offensive that he becomes an object of disgust. After a time ulceration sets in, the spongy bones are attacked and frequently entirely destroyed. A constant source of discomfort is the dripping of the purulent secretions into the throat sometimes producing inveterate bronchitis, which in turn has been the exciting cause of pulmonary disease. The brilliant results which have attended its use for years past properly designate Ely's Cream Balm as by far the best and only cure.

FORTY BUILDINGS BURNED.

Disastrous Fire at Marinette, Wis.—The Loss Placed at $200,000.

MARINETTE, Wis., Oct. 21.—Flames broke out at 1 a. m. yesterday in the rear of the grocery of Charles Ronke and spread with great rapidity. Soon there was a perfect sea of flames, against which four fire engines, two of which came from Menominee, were powerless. For four hours the fire raged and before it was finally checked it had caused a loss of $200,000 and forty buildings, including two hardware stores, three grocery stores, one meat-market, three dry-goods stores, two jewelry stores, two blacksmith and wagon shops, six private residences, three saloons and other business buildings, had been swept away. The list of losers numbers about sixty. It was fully four hours before the fire was sufficiently checked to be under control. The principal losers are as follows:

Watson Bros., hardware, $30,000 on building and stock; C. B. Primo, dry goods, $25,000; Johnston Bros., building and merchandise, $14,000; I. C. Lance & Co., $25,000; I. Verhalin, grocer, $5,000; O. S. Williams, hardware, $11,000.

Other losses range from $1,000 to $4,000. The insurance is distributed among thirty-one different companies

Davitt Returns to Ireland.

DUBLIN, Oct. 21.—Michael Davitt was given a splendid reception on his arrival at Queenstown yesterday from New York. In a speech thanking the assemblage he declared that the Irish race in America were more earnest than ever in the cause of home rule, and that American public opinion was unequivocally pronounced against coercion. He counseled courage, determination and sacrifice as sure means to secure the early success of the Irish cause.

Misery in London.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—The following figures are more eloquent than words to show the misery prevailing here: The paupers in the metropolis number, according to this week's report of the Board of Guardians, 91,000, against 71,000 the corresponding week last year. The Secretary of the Organized Charity Society says that there are 100,000 persons in the metropolis whose condition is one of acute suffering and distress.

Popular Education.

We sympathize with the feeling which often leads citizens to boast that no child born in this country need grow up in ignorance, and yet it is a fact that many people who have learned to read and write have never taught themselves to think. A man who suffered from catarrh, consumption, bronchitis, scrofula, or "liver complaint," might read, till his eyes dropped out, how these and many other diseases have been cured by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, but if he did not take the lesson to himself and test the virtues of this great medicine, his time would be thrown away.

A PLEA FOR THE BIRDS.

An Appeal to the Ladies of England.

Lo! the sea-gulls slowly whirling
Over all the silver sea,
Where the white-toothed waves are curling
And the winds are blowing free.
There's a sound of wild commotion
And the surge is stained with red:
Blood incarnadines the ocean,
Sweeping round old Flamborough Head.

For the butchers come unheeding
All the torture as they slay,
Helpless birds left slowly bleeding,
When the wings are rent away.
There the parent bird is dying,
With the crimson on her breast,
While her little ones are lying
Left to starve in yonder nest.

What dooms all these birds to perish,
What sends forth these men to kill,
Who can have the hearts that cherish
Such designs of doing ill?
Sad the answer: English ladies
Send those men, to gain each day
What for matron and for maid is
All the fashion, so folks say.

Feathers deck the hat and bonnet,
Though the plumage seemeth fair,
Punch, whene'er he looks upon it,
Sees that slaughter in the air.
Means a fashion gives employment
Unto thousands needing bread,
This, to add to your enjoyment,
Means the dying and the dead.

Wear the hat, then, sans the feather,
English women, kind and true;
Birds enjoy the summer weather
And the sea as much as you.
There's the ribbon, silk, or jewel,
Fashion's whims are oft absurd;
This is execrably cruel:
Leave his feathers to the bird!

—London Punch.

"ROAD AGENTS."

An Adventure on the Old Mariposa Stage.

There were five men of us in one of the old Mariposa stage coaches before the days of the railroad, and it was five o'clock in the afternoon of an August day. We were on our way to Stockton, and of the passengers one was a Lieutenant in the regular army, another a ranchman, and the other two were prospectors and miners. None of us had met each other previous to the start. Those were perilous times, and the first half hour was spent in sizing each other up. I don't know to what conclusion the others came, but I looked over the four men and said to myself:

"The Lieutenant ought to fight in case we are attacked, but he seems too nervous to be gamey. The tourist is ill and has no sand, but the ranchman and prospector can be depended on."

At that time the coach which was not stopped twice out of five trips was considered very lucky. In some instances the robbers were driven off, but in most cases the passengers submitted to being "held up," and were glad to get off with nothing worse. I had with me over six thousand dollars in bank bills and gold, and I was determined not to part with that money without a fight. The ranchman had four thousand dollars, and the miner about three thousand dollars, as was afterward learned, and both had determined to fight. We had just forded the Merced river, and had come to a lonely stretch of road, when the ranchman pulled his revolver and examined the caps. It was not yet returned to the holster when we heard a shout, the report of a pistol, and the stage came to a full stop. I reached for my pistol, as did the miner, knowing that robbers were at hand, but before mine was out the Lieutenant flung his arms around me and cried:

"For God's sake, make no move or we shall all be murdered! Let them take all we have!"

At the same time the tourist flung himself upon the miner, and neither of us had a weapon out when a robber showed himself at either door. The ranchman was ready, however, and he killed the man on his side. He would have also killed the other, but his revolver failed on the second shot, and the robber pushed his revolver in and fired with the muzzle pressed against the poor fellows heart. A third robber then came up, and we were covered from either door and called upon to surrender. The jig was up, and we climbed out, delivering our pistols butt foremost as we left the stage. There were four of us and only two robbers, but when a man has the drop on you and means business its no use to kick. We were placed in a row, and while one of the fellows kept us covered the other went through each man in turn. The Lieutenant shelled out a watch and $40, the tourist a watch and $400, and they got from the other two of us the sums I have previously named. I had my bank bills in my bootlegs, but as we were forced to strip to our shirts, they found every last dollar. While we were dressing the body of the ranchman was pulled from the coach and stripped and robbed.

I have no doubt that the robbers meant to shoot every one of us after securing the plunder in order to avenge the death of their comrade, but the unusually large booty put them in good spirits and they underwent a change of heart. The one who searched us stepped over the body a dozen times without seeming to care whether it was a log or man. When finally through with us he bent over the dead body and began robbing it, saying to his companion:

"Bill won't have any more use for money, and we might as well take his dollars along. Poor Bill! We shan't never play poker together again."

When they were ready to go they cut the harness so that the stage would be detained a couple of hours, broke up or carried off every fire-arm, and drank to our health from a flask the tourist had with him. They made off for the foothills to the east, having so little care for us that neither of them once looked back. I was mad and no mistake, and the miner gave uttorance to his feelings in curses which almost cracked the stones around us. We had been robbed of our every dollar, and, with the money, our every prospect. The tourist could get more at Stockton, and the Lieutenant was out only a few dollars anyway. I was not yet dressed when he began to put on airs over us, claiming if we had not been so hasty he would have managed the affair to the defeat of the robbers. This added to my anger, and I sailed in and pounded him until he yelled for mercy.

It was just sunset when the stage was ready to go on, but there were two of us who did not propose to go that way. We were unarmed, but determined, and while the stage lumbered off down the road we found a club apiece and set out on the trail of the robbers. Luckily for us the miner had been long in the country and seen a good deal of the hunter's life. We therefore had no difficulty in following the trail until darkness came on. The fellows made directly for the foothills, and we had no doubt that they had some sort of a cave or stronghold out there. They took matters so coolly that they could not have been a great ways ahead of us when darkness fell. I was then for resting until daylight, but the miner urged that we should push on. From the topography of the country he felt certain that a ravine or rift would be found not far away. We were then between the foothills and the true mountain, in a narrow valley, and a full moon had come up. Without this light we could not have found our way, as the ground was much broken and bowlders lay thickly scattered about.

We went ahead very cautiously up this valley for about a mile, and of a sudden a rift opened to the left and the glare of a camp fire greeted our eyes. It was not over two hundred feet away, and after a minute we made out the forms of the two men as they seemed to be preparing supper. We had found them, but what of it? They had all the arms and we were defenseless. We crept back a few yards to hold a consultation, and the miner carefully studied the lay of the land. He was of the opinion that it was a short, dry rift, with a cave at the far end. Three sides were inclosed by walls of earth and rock, and our only way was to attack the men from above. How high we would have to climb, or what the difficulties, we could not say. We were not three minutes deciding to make the attempt, and we prepared for it by laying coats, vests, boots behind. We began the ascent from a hundred feet back from the rift, and I do not believe two panthers could have done better. The side of the mountain was thickly covered with cedars, vines and rocks, and progress was made almost entirely by creeping. Once we drew ourselves up a cliff fully twenty feet high by a grapevine hanging down, and again we made use of a tree to seek a higher elevation. We had been going up for half an hour before we bore off to the right in the direction of the rift. We then had to move for more cautiously, and I presume it was a full hour from the time we left the valley before we lay on our stomachs a hundred feet above the camp fire and looked over. The men were directly beneath us, seated close together, and were smoking as they counted the money.

We had but one way to attack. Luckily for us it was a straight descent. I could have droppped a coin fair upon the hat of the man beneath me. We were out upon a rocky shelf, but there were loose stones of all sizes all about us. I selected one weighing about twenty-five pounds, the miner got one equally as large, and we carefully crept back to the edge with them. The fall of the smallest pebble would startle the men below, and we used as much caution as if our lives would pay the forfeit. After a bit we were ready. The men had not moved. For about a minute I lost my nerve. It seemed a horrible thing to do. Had I been alone I believe I should have relented. The miner seemed to read my thoughts, and he put his mouth to my ear and whispered:

"Remember how they shot the ranchman, and remember that they take our every shilling."

We poised the stones on the edge of the cliff, and at a whispered "Now" from him we dropped them. I heard them strike, and drew back. He peered over, and after a moment recovered his balance and said:

"Now we can go down. Those chaps will never rob another coach."

It took us longer to go down than to come up, but we made the descent in safety, and walked around to and up the rift. The fire had nearly died out. We replenished it, and then saw that both men were dead. It was a horrible sight and one I do not care to describe. Our rocks had fallen squarely down upon their heads, and you can imagine the result. There was a dry, airy cave but a few feet away, and the gang had made the place a rendezvous for a long time. We recovered every dollar our coach had been robbed of and more than as much again which had been taken from others. The cave had a big supply of fire-arms, blankets and provisions, and in a mail-bag hanging on the wall were ten gold and silver watches. We got altogether sixteen watches, five or six valuable pins, and fire-arms worth at least $600. We not only secured the wealth, but we made an even divide and kept every dollar of it. An attempt was made in Stockton to compel us to "divvy" with several people who had been robbed, but it was a failure. As the tourist was out of ready cash we gave him $200, but we would not even sell the lieutenant back his watch at any price. It was told all over the slope that our haul amounted to $35,000. If it did we earned every dollar of it, besides wiping out a bad gang and leaving the stage line clear for the next six months.—N. Y. Sun.

The Real Ideal of a Family Medicine

A remedy which promptly and completely relieves ailments of such common occurrence as indigestion, constipation, biliousness and disorders of a malarial type, is assuredly the best ideal of a family medicine. Such is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which is not only capable of eradicating these complaints, but also counteracting a tendency to kidney trouble, rheumatism and premature decadence of stamina. Taking it all round, as the phrase is, there is probably not in existence so useful, effective and agreeable a household panacea as the Bitters. Nor is it less highly esteemed by the medical profession than by the families of America. Numberless testimonials from medical sources of irrefragable authenticity evince its merit. The demand for it abroad no less than in the land of its discovery, is certainly increasing, and the discovery, is certainly increasing, and the experience of its beneficent effects confirming the high opinion formed of it

Great Iron Works Burned.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 21.—Petroleum which had been stored for fuel caught fire in the Fulton iron works Wednesday night and destroyed the machine shops, with much machinery and the castings for six steam schooners, which had been completed. Loss, about $200,000. The California car works adjoining were also burned. Their loss will be between $40,000 and $50,000.

Plead Guilty.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Thomas H. Davis, formerly cashier and assistant freight agent of the New York Central railroad, plead guilty yesterday to a charge of having stolen $15,000 from the company. The shortage in his accounts was discovered on the 14th inst. Davis fled, but was subsequently arrested.

Equalized Valuations in Illinois.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 21.—The total assessed and equalized valuations in the State this year, for the purpose of taxation, are $707,782,888, an increase of $4,209,390 over last year. The increase is wholly upon railroads and the capital stock of other corporations.

A Boy's Terrible Death.

MONON, Ind., Oct. 21.—Neighbors of William Duncan gathered at his house Wednesday night to celebrate a birthday. Among those present were Joseph Cleary and family. Mr. Cleary's 9-year-old son, in company with other children, went into the yard where Duncan's large shepherd dog was tied up. The boy attempted to caress the animal, which sprang at his throat, threw him to the ground, and before help could arrive killed him. The dog was known to be vicious.

Died at a Ripe Age.

GALENA, Ill., Oct. 21.—Mrs. Marianne Elizabeth Quinche, aged 85 years, a native of Switzerland, died Wednesday night at the family residence in this city, where she has lived since 1831. Mrs. Quinche and husband were members of the famous Lork Selkirk expedition which left Canton Neufchatel, Switzerland, in May, 1821, for the Red river region in North America, arriving at their destination in November of that year.

Scratched 28 Years

A Scaly, Itching, Skin Disease with Endless Suffering Cured by Cuticura Remedies.

If I had known of the Cuticura Remedies twenty eight year ago it would have saved me $500.00 (Two hundred dollars) and an immense amount of suffering. My disease (Psoriasis) commenced on my head in spots not larger than a cent. It spread rapidly all over my body and got under my nails. The scales would drop off of me all the time, and my suffering was endless and without relief. One thousand dollars would not tempt me to have this disease over again. I am a poor man, but feel rich to be relieved of what some of the doctors said was leprosy, some ring worm, psoriasis, etc. I took and Sarsaparillas over one year and a half but no cure. I went to two or three doctors and no cure. I sent for and got the Cuticura Remedies and in a month They have made my skin as clear and free from scales as a baby's. All I used of them was three boxes of Cuticura, and three bottles of Cuticura Resolvent and two cakes of Cuticura Soap. If you had been here and said you would have cured me for $200.00 you would have had the money. I look as like the picture in your book of Psoriasis (picture number two, "How to Cure Skin Diseases.") as I now I am as clear as any person ever was. Through force of habit I rub my hands over my arms and legs to scratch—a sensation of the nerves future cures and trouble. ## WORK AT THE PUMP HOUSE.

The Bricklayers Begin on the Outside Walls Early This Morning.

The Building Will Probably Be Enclosed Within the Next Two Weeks.

A force of brick layers commenced laying brick this morning for the pumping house of the water works, on South River street.

This building, which will contain the two large pumping engines and machinery connected therewith, as well as the boilers, will be 42x96 feet and eighteen feet high, with a slate roof. The brick walls are to be faced with Chicago red pressed brick, with Jefferson brick backfilling. It is claimed this building will be enclosed within two weeks. The red brick used are similar to the brick in the front of Mr. John Griffiths' building at the west end of Milwaukee street bridge.

The foundation for the engines and pumps will be brick piers, upon which will rest large stones, 8 feet 2 inches, by 12 feet 4 inches in size, which will form the bed plate for the engines and pumps These stones are procured from quarries in Ohio.

The building of the pumping house will be under the personal supervision of Mr. Williams, the company's contracting engineer.

It is thought that this pumping house, when completed, will be one of the handsomest in the west. In architectural design it is similar to the pumping house of the Racine water company.

The work of paving the reservoir is progressing very rapidly, and will be finished in a short time. Mr. Williams has had some very fine photograph views taken of the reservoir in its present condition, which are fine keepsakes of the construction of the Janesville water works. The "gate-house," located on the east side of the reservoir, is about completed, and makes a very fine showing.

Nearly all the large water mains are on the ground, and it now looks as though the plant would soon be ready to "let on the water," provided the engines and pumps get here.

—Charles Clark, of Beloit, tried to get a rebate on his board bill by throwing stones through the boarding house window. Consequently his meal ticket with Sheriff Ward is good "until sixty days from date."

—The water company now has ten miles of pipe in the ground—only three more miles to lay. The divers are expected here next week to lay the river crossings at Racine street and Center and South First streets.

—Chicago dispatches credit the Illinois Central company with a desire to have another feeder in this section of the country. It is said the route selected is from Dodgeville Junction near Freeport through the towns of Spring Creek and Rock Grove, thence on to Brodhead and Oshkosh.

—Frank B. Phelps, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Phelps, has accepted a position on the "local" of the Green Bay Gazette. He will begin his new work within a very few days. Mr. Phelps has had the training of two years' connection with the Madison Democrat and his energy and perseverance can hardly fail to win him success.

—Mr. W. A. Kellogg, of Scranton, Penn., is in the city for the purpose of introducing a patent air tight weather strip, which is simple in construction and superior to any weather strip in use. Mr. Kellogg will canvass the city and is entitled to a cordial reception.

—The Gazette is pleased to announce to subscribers for the "Pictorial History of the World's Great Nations" that we are binding this work complete in two volumes in a very neat style of bindery with embossed sides, at a much lower price than is charged by outside parties for the same work. Call and see samples.

—Evan Lewis, the Wisconsin "strangler," and D. A. McMillan, of California, assisted by other athletes, will visit Janesville on Thursday evening of next week and give an exhibition at the Riverside Rink, consisting of wrestling in various forms, boxing, and other muscular demonstrations. They will undoubtedly draw a large crowd together.

—Escaping steam from No. 2 engine, while being replaced in the engine house this morning after returning from the Baker alarm, frightened Dr. F. O. Robertson's horse, which was standing in front of Carlson's meat market The horse broke loose, breaking the harness and dog cart somewhat, and striking Miller's delivery wagon, smashed the rear end to the extent of a few dollars. Luckily nothing more serious resulted among so many frightened animals.

—A little army of young boys and girls perpetrated a pleasant surprise on Charlie Slightam, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. John Slightam, North Bluff street, last evening, by calling at his home in the early evening. The young people were most hospitably received, and the Slightam home echoed the voices of the merry makers for several hours. They had a most joyous time and all retired at a seasonable hour well pleased with the pleasures of the evening.

—A stove that has already served forty years and that is good for as many years more, is not often seen, but one went out of a west side hardware store this morning. In shape it was almost square and was built entirely of great slabs of iron that looked as though leaned up against one another and bolted together. The structure altogether would weigh almost seven hundred pounds. The stove was brought west by C. H. Conrad and did good service in Mr. Conrad's store. It will start in for another half century's work by heating the Congregations church at Emerald Grove.

—At 8:55 o'clock this morning an alarm of fire was sounded on both engine house bells, calling the fire department to the residence of Mr. Herbert Baker, corner of South First and Division streets. A cauldron of boiling tar, which some workmen were using about the premises, took fire, and passing school children seeing the dense smoke gave the alarm. Assistant Engineer Hutchinson working near by, and seeing there was no danger from the burning tar, hurried down the street and halted the fire department before they reached the top of the hill. A large crowd of people were on the streets. No damage.

—Farmers should be on their guard, says an exchange, against two oily rascals, who are abroad in the land, and may endeavor to prey upon them One claims to be gathering crop statistics, while the other has a remonstrance against high taxation. The object is to secure the signature of the farmers to papers which afterwards turn up at the banks as promissory notes. These farmers who fail to keep posted by reading the newspapers are of course the victims. These scoundrels who are going about the country looking for victims whom they may swindle would as soon think of monkeying with a buzz saw while it is in motion as to tackle a farmer who reads the newspaper and try to swindle him.

We have heard many of our old friends say that Salvation Oil cured them of rheumatism. Those who have not tried it should do so Our druggists sell it for 25 cents a bottle all the time.

TWENTY-SIX HURT.

A Defective Switch Derails a Train Near Charleston, W. Va.—Many Injured—Two Lives Lost and Several Persons Hurt in a Collision in South Carolina.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Oct. 21.—Shortly before noon yesterday the fast express on the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad with six coaches, going west, met with an accident twelve miles below this city, in which twenty-six passengers were more or less injured. None were killed outright, but several were seriously injured. The railroad authorities sent to this city for surgical aid and Drs. Henry Thompkins and Thomas left for the scene of the accident, reaching there within twenty minutes. The accident was caused by a defective switch over which the engine, baggage, express and mail cars passed unharmed, but the three middle coaches, all well filled with passengers, were thrown from the track, two of which were turned completely over, one turning twice.

Two passengers whose names were not learned suffered with broken backs. It was fortunate that the fires had gone out in the stoves or the loss of life would have been great. The train was due here at 9 a. m., but was several hours late. No blame is attached to the employes, and the company's officers are doing all in their power to care for the injured, many of whom are able to continue their journey. Those who are more seriously hurt are at St. Albans, but a few hundred yards from the scene of the accident.

IN SOUTH CAROLINA.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 21.—A freight train from Spartansburg collided yesterday morning at Greer's, twelve miles east of Greenville, with a passenger train from Atlanta, which carried the Morgan Rifles of Spartansburg on their way home after the Presidential festivities. Two persons were killed and ten severely wounded. The killed are: Mrs. Hamp McDonnell, of Asheville, N. C.; Robert Ward, the passenger train engineer.

The collision occurred three miles west of Greers and was caused by the freight train not side-tracking at Greers to let the passenger train pass. The passenger train consisted of nine coaches. Both engines were wrecked, also the postal, baggage and express cars of the passenger train and the first three cars of the freight. Engineer Harris and Conductor Reville of the freight train disappeared.

THE TEMPLE OF HONOR

The District Convention of Temples of Honor Adjourns After Considering the Business.

Officers Elected and a Social Temple Organized in this City.

The session of the Temple of Honor was closed last evening. The Temple considered much business while in session with closed doors. At the session yesterday afternoon the following officers were elected for the First District Temple:

President and Worthy Chief Templar—F. H. Grube, Madison.

Vice President and Worthy Vice Templar—John A. Bingham, Milwaukee.

Worthy Recorder—Peter Fagg, Madison.

Worthy Chaplain—O. B. Orton, Beloit.

Worthy Usher—L. Canniff, Janesville.

The committee on the state of the order made the following report, which was adopted:—

Your committee on the state of the order regret very much indeed that we have so short a time to give attention to the very important work of this committee. We heartily endorse the new system adopted by the Grand Templar, A. J. Smith, in dividing this state into two districts, for the purpose of doing more earnest, aggressive temperance and temple work in accordance with the spirit and demand of the times, and to adopt for our principle the motto of "onward and forward" upon the breastworks and entrenchments of our common enemy, the liquor traffic and the saloon influence. We therefore recommend that all the temples of the First district to unite together, and give notice of precept and example to the liquor traffic and the saloon element of this district of our state that we shall no longer have any kind of armistice, but that we shall at once begin to use every honorable means in our power to prohibit the manufacture, sale and use of intoxicating drinks within our commonwealth and the nation, and to give our hearty co-operation and sympathy to all temperance organizations that will unite with us in that line of work. We firmly believe that the work begun by Brother Grube, superintendent of this district, has already accomplished great good, and your committee recommend to the Temple of this district to give him our hearty support and co-operation. We believe that if the good work begun under the new plan be continued we shall be able to double our temples and our membership. For all of which we earnestly pray. Yours fraternally,

PETER FAGG,
C. P. SPRAGUE,
J. VAN VRANKEN,
JOHN A. BINGHAM,
M. S. PRICHARD,
Committee.

A Social Temple was organized, and the following officers were elected:

S. P. T.—Miss Hattie Taylor.
B. P. T.—Will Tuckwood.
S. V. T.—Mary Sheffield.
B. V. T.—J. Harrison.
S. R. T.—Flora Hoyl.
B. R. T.—C. F. Smith.
S. F. R.—Mrs. J. Van Vranken.
B. F. R.—M. S. Prichard.
S. U.—Mrs. J. Taylor.
B. U.—J. I. Van Vranken.
B. S.—E. Van Vranken.
B. P. T.—Jane Clough.

The wives and daughters of members of the Temple of Honor are eligible to membership in the Social Temple. The installing officer, Mr. Peter Fagg, of Madison, will be in the city to-morrow evening for the purpose of installing the officers of the Social Temple. All ladies and gentlemen eligible who desire to be enrolled as charter members of this new social order will make application accordingly.

The meeting in this city at this time has resulted in much good to the local order.

HOW GOES THE PRICE OF CUT BEATS.

Mr. Nels Carlson, the North Main street meat dealer, publishes a notice in another column of this paper announcing a reduction in the price of cut meats at his market. The best cuts of sirloin steaks which have heretofore sold at 15c will now be sold at 12½c. porterhouse steaks at 12½c, best cuts roast beef which have been sold at 12½c will now be sold at 10c. Round steaks at 10c. Fresh and salt pork, lard and sausage at 10c. All other cut meats will be reduced in like proportion. This will be good news to housekeepers who have long looked for a reduction in the price of meats in the Janesville market. With cattle at 2@3½c on foot, there is no valid reason why meats should not be sold at a much less figures than now. The people will appreciate this move on the part of Mr. Carlson, and only hope that it will result in bring the price still lower, in keeping with the price of live cattle, hogs and sheep. If this rule was followed customers would not have cause for grumbling at the exhorbitant prices charged by our meat dealers. See Mr. Carlson's announcement.

PERSONAL.

—Miss Lou Sparham has been visiting friends in Chicago.

—Mrs. E. O. Johnson, who has been so seriously ill, is now convalescent.

—Phil. Cheek, Jr., will be one of the orators at the Grand Army entertainment at the Rifles armory this evening.

—S. Carr, of Milton Junction, and Clinton Babbit, of Beloit, are among the delegates appointed by Governor Rusk to represent Wisconsin the National Farmers' Congress at Chicago.

—Mr. Geo. W. Fetherston, of the town of Harmony, returned home last evening from a six months' trip in Europe, having enjoyed the time very pleasantly. Mr. Fetherston, while in Ireland, secured several "black-thorn" walking sticks, which he brought home, as well as several other little keepsakes as reminders of his pleasant trip.

SLIPS OF SCIENCE.

A process called the Azaline process, by which oil paintings are photographed with the color restored, is a late invention.

THE reason given by physicians for the immunity from death of drunken persons, who sustain severe falls or injuries is, that the nerve centers which regulate the heart and vessels are so much paralyzed in the drunken man as not to be affected by the shock of the fall, which in a sober man would have acted on them so violently as to stop the heart, arrest the circulation and cause instant death.

WHAT is usually defined as a combination of all colors, and black as the absence of color. Speaking accurately, an object is white when it throws back all the rays of light, and black when it absorbs all. A blue object absorbs all rays except the blue, which it reflects, a red object reflects the red rays only, and so on through all the colors and their combinations.

OF the three leading anæsthetics—chloroform, ether and nitrous oxide—chloroform is the most dangerous, the proportion of deaths to administrations is 1 in 60,000. Ether comes next with 1 in 80,000, while nitrous oxide is last with 1 in 140,000. But it unfortunately happens that nitrous oxide is too volatile, and can not be used for operations lasting more than one minute, so that ether must be used.

CARBONS for use in electric lights are made from the residue of petroleum distillation, as well as from the carbonaceous deposits found around natural gas wells. The materials are finely pulverized, mixed with a little pitch and placed in molds, which are packed in boxes and put into a furnace, where they are submitted to an intense heat. The capacity of an ordinary furnace is 45,000 crayons. They are baked for five days, and the cooling takes twenty-four hours.

A NEW compound for steel consists of resin, linseed oil, glycerine, and powdered charcoal; heated and intimately mixed, in certain definite proportions. It is used by heating the steel to a clear red heat, immersing and coating it in the compound, the steel being afterward reheated and hardened in the usual manner by quickly cooling it. By this treatment, burned cast steel is restored to its original condition, and the softer grades of steel acquire the proportions of cast steel.

IT has been ascertained that the difficulties experienced by aeronauts, due to the rarefaction of the atmosphere, begin only at an altitude of twenty-three thousand or twenty-four thousand feet. This view seems supported by the fact that in the Himalayas and the Andes, heights of about twenty thousand feet have been on several occasions reached without any inconvenience. In such cases, however, the ascent has always been gradual. The ill effects experienced in balloons are possibly due to the suddenness of the change.

IT is stated that the process of photographing on boxwood, heretofore thought impracticable, has been invented in Russia. The first step is to fill its press with insoluble carbonate of copper, by means of two separate solutions, in which it is boiled sufficiently. A polish is then imparted to its surface, asphalt in solution is then applied to its back and sides, and finally a sensitized gelatine, film placed over the polished face. The subject to be etched is now photographed on the surface, and by washing the soluble and unprinted parts of the gelatine removed. A coating of asphalt is next applied to the raised parts, the block steeped in nitric acid of suitable strength (the stronger the better), where it remains one hour, when it is removed and subjected to the action of sulphuric acid for the same time. The portions unprotected are thus changed to nitro-cellulose, which, by brushing, is readily removed in the form of a greenish powder. To complete the process the block is dried and briskly brushed with a stiff brush. The asphalt is lastly removed with benzine, and the block is ready for the press.

INDUSTRIAL INTEREST.

CHICAGO consumes eighty thousand gallons of milk daily.

FIRE-BRICK for paving purposes is a new Illinois industry recently developed. The brick in question ranks high as a paving material.

SPANISH AMERICA furnishes most of the mahogany used in this country. Since the year 1720 the wood has been a staple article of commerce.

THE only slate-pencil factory in the United States is in Castleton, Vt. The average daily output is about thirty thousand, and the factory gives employment to twenty-five hands. The pencils are all made by machinery now, whereas they used to be whittled into shape by hand.

THE National Toothpick Association, of Maine, expects to manufacture enough wooden toothpicks in the present year to load a train of fifty railway cars. The number of toothpicks to make up that amount is placed at 5,000,000,000. Most of the toothpicks used in this country are made in Maine.

BEFORE the invention of machinery for rolling tinfoil nearly all that was used was imported. Now, however, that industry is largely confined to our own shores. The tin for the purpose is mined principally in Australia and the East Indies. Millions on millions of pounds of the foil are annually used in this country.

LARGE buildings in the Eastern cities are wholly devoted to the freezing and storage of fresh fish for the inland trade. Until the year 1865, when the freezing process became known, the fresh fish trade was very slim; but now, with facilities for preserving fish fresh a year or more, the business has attained mammoth proportions.

FEW persons have an idea of the enormous consumption of twine in this country. One of the greatest demands for the article comes from the farmers, who consume thirty-five thousand tons annually upon the self-binding harvesters. Allowing five pounds to the mile, this would be equal to a string long enough to go more than six times round the earth.

BOTTLES for holding spirits and acids are now made of paper. The glued paper is rolled by machinery into such a tube as is required, and the tube is cut up into suitable lengths. The tops and bottoms, of wood or paper, are cemented in, and necks are added when required. The interiors of the bottles are then lined with a heated fluid composition that sets hard and will resist fluids and spirits. The bottles are practically unbreakable, having a minimum of weight, and require no packing material in transit.

MAKING buttons of blood is one of the queer industries of this country for the utilization of waste material. There is a large factory near Chicago, in which over one hundred hands are employed, using ten thousand gallons of blood daily. None but fresh blood is used. Some of it is light in color and some dark, according to the chemical treatment given it. These thin sheets of dried blood are then broken up, and are ready to be worked into various shapes and sizes. Large quantities of the blood sheets are used by cloth manufacturers for "setting" the color in calico goods. Not only are buttons made from blood in this way, but tons of ear-rings, breast-pins, belt clasps, combs and trinkets are made annually there from blood.

You will notice how quickly a thoroughly successful article is imitated, and also that the imitations are without merit, as they are gotten up by unscrupulous parties. Beware of imitations of Dr. Jones' Red Clover Tonic. The genuine is sold by Prentice & Evenson and promptly cures dyspepsia, costiveness, bad breath, piles, pimples, ague and malaria diseases, poor appetite, low spirits headache, or diseases of the kidneys stomach and liver. Price 50 cents.
